

Application for legitimate absence

If you cannot take an examination due to illness or for other pressing reasons, you must apply for legitimate absence to the Examinations Office. See the Academic Regulations for NTNU §5-6((5)).

Submit your application at the latest one week after the first exam for which the absence applies. Provide details of the exams for which you are applying for legitimate absence.

Documentation, such as a medical certificate, must be attached the application.

Student number:

Campus city:

Course code(s):

Examination date(s):

Name:

Norwegian ID-number (11 digits):

The reason why you could not attend the exam(s):

Attached documentation: