

A pedagogical CV should focus on your competence as an educator and your pedagogical practice (see the guide for applicants). It is important to emphasize teaching mainly from the last 5 years, but if there is anything that has been important for your development of competence earlier in your career, this can also be highlighted. Add additional rows where you need to. Maximum 4 pages.

Pedagogical CV

Name
Position
Faculty
Department
Telephone
Email
Period of employment at NTNU

Education and pedagogical competence

Higher education that is relevant to your current position as well as education, training and competence acquired in courses in teaching and learning. It is also possible for the applicant to submit a self-assessment of real pedagogical competence if the applicant has not completed basic teaching qualifications (see the guide for applicants).

Time period	Education, University college/University
Time period	Pedagogical courses or education, University college/University

Teaching experience

Description of your teaching tasks in higher education. Comment briefly on your responsibilities in the course and/or programme of study.

Time period	Position, employer
	Responsibility, course or programme of study, subject area, level, and credits.
Time period	Position, employer
	Responsibility, course or programme of study, subject area, level, and credits.

Development projects and pedagogical collaboration

Description of your role in development projects (project manager, specific tasks, collaboration, etc.), and how you have worked to develop courses and study programmes.

Time period	Project, own role, source of funding and total amount granted
Time period	Project, own role, source of funding and total amount granted

Dissemination

Description of relevant presentations and publications linked with development projects and pedagogical issues within your subject area.

Time period	Project, type of dissemination, name of conference/publication/other, own role
Time period	Project, type of dissemination, name of conference/publication/other, own role
Time period	Project, type of dissemination, name of conference/publication/other, own role

Pedagogical management

Description of management responsibilities related to development of education in addition to pedagogical positions and assignments.

Time period	Position/work assignment, University College/University
Time period	Position/work assignment, University College/University